1. Give A Child Waits Foundation permission to contact the adoption agency and social worker who are assisting us in our adoption process.

2. If necessary, give A Child Waits Foundation permission to obtain a recent credit report for the purpose of grant determination. This is seldom done, however, if the Foundation determines it is necessary, the applicant will be notified before a credit report is obtained.

3. Understand that any false or misleading answers on the application or subsequent documents will be grounds to decline approval or revoke a grant that has already been approved.

4. For the benefit of A Child Waits Foundation's Board of Directors, if given a grant, we agree to provide our adoption summary and photographs once our adoption is complete.
